

CROSSING'S REDEMPTION

Book Club Discussion Guide

Thank you for your interest in book four of the Crossing series, Crossing's Redemption! The questions below are simply ideas to get a discussion started. If you have any questions, including information about the other books in the series, Crossing Values, Ryan's Crossing, or Romancing Melody: A Crossing Journey, go to CarrieDaws.com.

1. What impression did the title give you at first? After you read the book?
2. What would you say is the primary theme? Did it cause you to reflect on it within your own life?
3. What scene was the most pivotal for the book? Would the story be less valuable or more poignant without it?
4. Which character most resonated with you? Why?
5. Were there any particular quotes that stood out to you? Why does it mean so much?
6. Were there any moments where you would have chosen a different path than one of the main characters? Do you think your choice would have made the story better?
7. Have any of your views changed since reading this series?
