

CROSSING VALUES

Book Club Discussion Guide

Thank you for your interest in Crossing Values! The questions below are simply ideas to get a discussion started. You can also download a free, seven-day devotional based on the book. For more information, go to CarrieDaws.com.

1. Did you find the setting just outside of Portland, Oregon, believable?
2. What would you say is the primary theme?
3. Were the characters Amber, Peter, Frank and Faye believable? Could you relate to the family backgrounds of either Amber or Peter?
4. Which character most resonated with you? Why?
5. Did Amber's conversion to Christianity seem realistic? Were her questions honest and her hesitations legitimate considering her past?
6. Which was your favorite scene? Did any part make you think about something in a new way?
