

RYAN'S CROSSING

Book Club Discussion Guide

Thank you for your interest in book two of the Crossing series, Ryan's Crossing! The questions below are simply ideas to get a discussion started. If you have any questions, including information about the first book, Crossing Values, go to CarrieDaws.com.

1. Did you find the small town setting just outside of Portland, Oregon, believable? What about the scenes that took place within Portland?
2. What would you say is the primary theme?
3. Were the characters Ryan and Brittany believable? Could you relate to the work or faith struggles Ryan faced?
4. Which character most resonated with you? Why?
5. Did Ryan's progression in his faith seem realistic? Were his doubts honest and hesitations legitimate considering his past?
6. Which was your favorite scene? Did any part make you think about something in a new way?
