

“As we regularly spend time reading god’s word
and talking to Him in prayer, we put ourselves in position for Him to do things in our lives we could never do on our own.”

– Joyce Meyer

“Most Christians
expect little
from God,
ask little and therefore receive little and are content with little.”

– A.W. Pink

“The Holy Ghost does not flow through methods,
but through men.
He does not come
on machinery, but on men.
He does not anoint plans, but men—men of prayer.”

– E.M. Bounds

“The Master
says (and the experience of His people has confirmed) that men of strong faith are men of much prayer.”

– Andrew Murray

“Prayer is not a hard requirement—it is the natural duty of a creature to its creator, the simplest homage that human need
can pay to divine liberality.”

– Charles Spurgeon

“Rather than
set aside daily time
for prayer, I pray constantly and spontaneously about everything
I encounter on a daily basis.”

- Thomas Kinkade

“There are many things that are essential to arriving at true peace of mind, and one of the most important is Faith which cannot be acquired without prayer.”

– John Wooden

“Prayer is our invitation
to God to intervene in the affairs of earth.
It is our request for Him to work his ways
in this world.”

- Myles Munroe

“One of the most common reasons
why we don’t hear from God is perhaps the most obvious:
We’re not listening.”

- Priscilla Shirer

“To have God speak to the heart is a majestic experience, an experience that people miss if they monopolize the conversation and never pause
to hear God’s responses.”

- Charles Stanley
